

Air Pollution and Health

Community Scientific Engagement Forum

23-24 September 2013

Newcastle City Hall, Newcastle

INTERNATIONAL EXPERTS:

- ◆ Prof C. Arden Pope, Brigham Young University, USA
- ◆ Prof Ross Anderson, Professor of Epidemiology and Public Health, MRC-HPA Centre for Environment and Health, UK
- ◆ Prof Bert Brunekreef, Professor of Environmental Epidemiology, Utrecht University, The Netherlands.
- ◆ Prof Guy Marks, Director of The Centre for Air quality and health Research and evaluation (CAR)

Responding to Community Concerns

- ◆ Video streamed to Muswellbrook (others TBA)
- ◆ Community can submit questions for experts at hunterairandhealth.net

More Information

Craig Dalton or

Joy Tripovich

forum@hunterairandhealth.net

www.hunterairandhealth.net

Topics covered:

- Sources and health impacts of air pollution in the Hunter
- Environmental monitoring data in the Hunter
- Fine particulates – where do they come from and what is their chemical composition
- Health impacts of coal dust
- The role of health studies/epidemiology in answering questions related to air pollution exposures
- Contextualising health issues in land use conflicts

Day 1 – Morning: Air Pollution and Health Workshop
Introduction to pollution and health concepts

Day 1 – Afternoon: Contextualising Health Issues in Land Use Conflicts
Air pollution is just one of many concerns in land use conflicts

Day 2 – State of the Art Presentations by Air Pollution and Health Experts
International health experts share the latest research on air pollution and answer questions

The detailed provisional program is available at www.hunterairandhealth.net/forum.html and is subject to change. Register online.

Cost

Organisation	Day 1 AM	Day 1 PM	Day 2
Academics, Government (Local and State), Consultants & Industry	$88	$88	$165
Community, NGOs & Students	No cost	No cost	$40

- ◆ An early bird discount 10% will apply for applications received by July 15th. Refunds for cancellation are not available after July 15th. Space is limited. Day 2 Registration fee includes morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea. All rates are GST inclusive.

